About the Epiphany Tuesday Concerts

The Church of the Epiphany, in the heart of downtown Washington, D.C. has been serving those in need and celebrating the arts since its founding in 1842. Every Tuesday, free programs are offered to the community by artists from around the world. The series enjoys partnerships as well with local arts groups, including The Levine School of Music and the Washington Bach Consort.

This fall, to stop the spread of COVID-19, we are offering something new: Epiphany Tuesday Concerts at Home. Each Tuesday at 12:10, we will post a performance to our YouTube channel. You can expect the same eclectic music and the beauty of our resonant acoustic space - now able to be watched on demand. Take a break while you work from home to enjoy professional performances from around the world.

Ways to Give

We welcome goodwill donations to help provide compensation for the performers, defray the costs of maintaining the instruments, and administrative costs, but the need is always greater than the available resources. Please consider a gift to the Epiphany Tuesday Concerts so we can continue to offer inspiring experiences of the arts for many years to come.

You can visit our website http://epiphanydc.org/giving/ or contact our Director of Music, Dr. Jinsun Cho, at tcs@epiphanydc.org, to learn more about giving and sponsorship opportunities.
